KICK-OFF RALLY SEES DEMONSTRATION PROGRAM

FORMER CONVICT PREACHES SERMON

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—Donald A. Brandeis, 27-year-old convict who served nearly three years in the state prison at Raiford, Fla., for auto theft, (second right), is welcomed to First Baptist church here by Circuit Judge W. May Walker, who sentenced him (left). Brandeis preached to an overflow audience. Looking on are W. D. Hopkins, the attorney who prosecuted Brandeis for car theft (right); and Dr. Harold G. Sanders, pastor of First Baptist church, who befriended the ex-convict while in prison. In addition to the judge and attorney, the congregation included the man from whom he had stolen the car and several law enforcement and parole officers who had dealings with him. TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—(RNS)—A 27-year-old ex-convict who posed as a state Senator and stole an automobile here in 1953 preached to an overflow audience at First Baptist church.

Donald A. Brandeis, who recently completed a term of nearly three years in the state prison at Raiford, plans to devote his life to spreading the Gospel.

With tears in his eyes, Brandeis told the dramatic story of his conversion while in prison. He said the man who led him to Christ was serving sentences totaling 199 years.

The former convict was speaking to an unusual audience. In the congregation were the judge who sentenced him, the attorney who prosecuted him, the man from whom he had stolen the automobile, and several law enforcement and parole officials who had dealings with him.

Each of the men who had a part in sending Brandeis to prison walked up to him after the service and wished him well. Circuit Judge W. May Walker, a deacon in the church, personally welcomed him.

Brandeis, son of a New York doctor, told the congregation that his first derelictions were drinking and smoking at the age of 16. Later he stole cars and cashed bad checks, offenses which landed him in 14 jails in three states.

After his conversion at the Raiford prison, Brandeis started a Sunday school there. His first class consisted of four inmates. When he left the prison there were 151 members.

Brandeis plans to travel for a few months with E. J. Daniels, a Baptist revival leader, and then enter a denominational college.

One of his aims, he said, is to preach at least once in every prison in the United States.

Sanderson Named To Succeed Matthews

ATLANTA, Ga.—(BP)—Leonard Sanderson, secretary of evangelism for the Tennessee Baptist Convention, will assume the same position with the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board after Jan. 1.

Sanderson, who will move to Dallas, Tex., where this Home Board office is located, succeeds Charles E. Matthews. Matthews is retiring from the secretaryship he has held since 1947.

Appointment of Sanderson was announced by the Home Mission Board in its annual session here, where its main offices are located. The Board also appointed a superintendent for its Alaska mission work.

missionary in that part of the West for Southern Baptists, will take the Alaska post Jan. 1.

The Board increased its annual budget of $285,000 to a figure of $2,385,000. Its executive secretary, Courts Redford, said there are 1,099 missionaries on the field—which includes Panama, Canal Zone, Alaska, and Cuba as well as the United States.

There were 388 student mis-

Plans Made To Reach Every Association

A gigantic kick-off rally for the Baptist World Missions Conferences set for Jan. 16-20 was held at Calvary Church in Jackson on Tuesday morning of this week.

These attending were the 75 State Convention Board members, the 57 speakers who will compose the 19 teams of conference speakers, the 25 associational superintendents, of missions the state Convention officers and the heads of the Baptist institutions in the state.

The purpose of the rally was to stage a demonstration program and to discuss plans for the conferences, one of which will be held in each association the week of Jan. 16-20.

The featured speakers and their subjects were: "Our Mission-Missions," Rev. Russell M. McIntire, pastor Clinton Church;

"Our Method-The Cooperative Program," Dr. Chester L. Quarles, executive secretary-treasurer, and "Our Measuring Up" by Dr. S. R. Woodson, pastor First Church, Columbus.

Plans were discussed regarding organization in each association looking to a big attendance and all details of conference plans will be discussed.

The plan calls for a team of three speakers to visit each association the week of Jan. 16-20.

"World Missions Advance" will be the theme of the Conference and every church member is urged to attend the meeting in his association.

The kick-off meeting was closed at noon with a fellowship luncheon at the host church, Dr. Luther Joe Thompson, pastor.

The morning kick-off meeting was part of the State Convention Board Meeting. The formal Board Meeting began after lunch with Dr. W. C. Fields, Yazoo City, president, in the chair.

Communists Renew Efforts To Combat Religion

In one of the strongest declarations on the subject in recent months, the Soviet radio has reaffirmed communist hostility to religion, and has called for an intensified propaganda effort to combat the revival of religion in the USSR since World War II, the U. S. Information Agency reports.

In its overseas press and radio commentaries, the Information Agency said the declaration was made by M. P. Koritsyn of the Soviet Ministry of Culture in a recent Russian-language broadcast for home consumption.

The speaker portrayed religion as based solely on "blind faith," and said religion "kills the best human qualities." Koritsyn cited the danger of the religious maxim: "Love your enemies, bless them that curse you." Hate, not love, is needed to ward off enemies, Koritsyn said.

The Soviet speaker attacked observance of religious holidays as "one of the most harmful remnants of the past." In discussing Easter, the most important holy day for Russian Christians, Koritsyn made the flat statement that "science has proven that Christ never existed."

The fact that most religious leaders are now "loyal" to the communist regime does not mean that atheistic propaganda is not necessary, Koritsyn declared. The Information Agency quoted him as saying: It would be naive to think that religious beliefs will die a natural death. Religious beliefs are long-lived, are an enormous force and can become stronger."

During the war, the people turned in greater numbers to religion and "the weakness of atheistic propaganda during and after the war also contributed to the strengthening of re-

"religious beliefs," the Soviet official declared.

It must be understood, Kozin emphasized, that religious ideology "continues to be an obstacle on the road to construction of communism," even if religious people do not oppose the state through overt action.

missionaries working last summer as well.

R. E. Milam, state secretary for Southern Baptists in the Oregon-Washington convention, petitioned for increased mission work by the denomination in Canada. The Home Board appointed a committee to make a special study of the request and report to the Board next August.

In its church loans, the Board currently has over $5 million in use by more than 500 churches.

Redford and other administrative officers of the Board were re-elected to their positions. The Board also elected Atlanta Layman C. G. Cole to another term as its president.

In the last issue of the Baptist Record an article was carried stating that due to the fact that the city of Richmond was planning to tax the Foreign Mission Board office property there was a likelihood that the Board would move its headquarters. A later dispatch states that the city has returned the Foreign Mission Board's property to the tax-exempt list for at least one year.

REV. MERCER McCOOL

Funeral services were held at Linn Baptist Church for the Rev. Mercer McCool, a seminarian at Mississippi College and a young popular, religious artist, on November 28.

Rev. Herman Milner, pastor of Van Winkle Church, Jackson, officiated, assisted by Rev. Harold Savell, pastor of the Linn Church, and Chaplain Wally, Chaplain of the 136th Transportation Division of the National Guards of which Mr. McCool was a member.

Among the many friends showing their last respects were seventeen ministers from various parts of the state, Majors Jackson and Karow of the National Guards, Mr. McCool's art instructor, the S. U. Secretary of Mississippi College, and many fellow students.

In commenting on the life of Mr. McCool, Mr. Milner said, "Many artists paint for art's sake but Mercer McCool painted for Jesus' sake."

Mr. McCool leaves his wife, his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. D. I. McCool, Sr. and a brother, D. I. McCool, Jr.

INTERNATIONAL HOUSE PARTY CAMP GARAYWA

Mississippi Woman's Missionary Union was host, at the Thanksgiving season, to students from other countries who are studying in colleges of Mississippi. There were 67 present with the following countries represented: 1 each from; Formosa, Italy, Chile, Brazil, Honduras, Lebanon, White Russia, Iran, Guatemala, Peru and Panama; 2 each from Argentina, Germany, Estonia, Costa Rica, Iraq and India; 3 each from Mexico, Cuba, Nicaragua and Korea; 4 each from Hawaii, Jordan and Colombia and 8 from China.

There were 10 colleges represented; Belhaven, 1; Blue Mountain, 10; Clarke, 6; Jones Junior, 2; Mississippi College, 11; William Carey, 2; Mississippi Southern, 1; Hinds Junior, 1; Mississippi State, 21; University of Mississippi, 9.

The Houseparty began Thursday afternoon and closed Saturday morning. After the Thanksgiving dinner Thursday night a filmstrip, "Why We Have Thanksgiving" was shown.

One of the highlights was the Talent Parade of the Countries on Friday night. Each group planned and prepared something representative and typical of their country. Among those attending was an outstanding violinist of Japan—Miss Noriko Ika, a Fullbright scholarship student studying at Ole Miss.

Friends in Jackson and Clinton arranged for cars to take the entire group on a sight seeing trip of Jackson and a period of fellowship in homes. The picture above was taken as part of the group visited the state Capitol.

At noon on Friday the group enjoyed an oriental meal.

It was the plan and purpose of those in charge to create a "home away from home" for these International visitors in our state. Many of the young people indicated that this experience was the highlight of their stay in America. There were many who had a part in helping to make this possible and we are grateful to each person.

OFF TO A GREAT START THE VERY BEST EVER

It's most remarkable the way the associations have been reporting on Sunday school training for the first few weeks of the new year. It's the best we have ever had for the first two months.

During October, the first month of the year, 52 of the 75 associations in the state sent in reports. November gave us 8 additional ones, making a total of 60 of the 75 associations reporting Sunday school training awards during the first two months of the year.

That is a wonderful record, and we are so grateful to all those who have had a part in this good work.

That leaves us only 15 associations not reporting on this item for the first two months of this year. These 15 associations are Clarke, Carroll, Greene, Holmes, Humphreys, Kemper, Lafayette, Marshall, Monroe, Mississippi, Noxubee, Perry, Sharkey-Issaquena, Union County, and Winston.

And several of the above 15 associations have their plans already worked out for some special training program within the next few months.

Let's keep up the good work of reaching every church possible for some training of the people. We always gain when we train our leaders for better work.

SPECIAL MEETINGS COMING MARK THE DATE

Here are some very important dates for Sunday school workers for this year, and they are coming soon, too. Mark them down and make plans for a good attendance.

December 29-30, Adult Conferences in Mobile, Alabama, and Memphis, Tennessee.

These are simultaneous, with identical programs, along with four others in the Southern Baptist Convention.

Mobile and Memphis make it easy for Mississippi Adult workers to attend.

Each person going must make his plans for room and meals while there. The local churches are not providing either. There will be only one night there. The program begins at 10:00 o'clock on the morning of the 29 and closes at noon on the 30. And this is December, the Thursday and Friday following Christmas.

One of the special Sunday school emphases for this year is adults, and especially men.

So these conferences are in line with this part of our objectives.

So, adults, on to Mobile or Memphis, December 29-30, 1955.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT DATE

March 12-13, in the First Baptist Church of Jackson, we will have our State Sunday School Convention.

There will be only one Convention this year, instead of three, as we have had for each of the last several years, but it will be for a longer time than the one-day ones.

A great program is planned, with capable conference leaders and inspirational speakers.

Mark this date on your calendar and make plans for a good attendance of your Sunday school people. This is one of the great opportunities of the year, and it is right here in our state, with some of the best Sunday school workers to be found anywhere. Don't let it pass without getting the most from it.

The Civil Air Patrol calls for 210 Southern Baptist pastors to serve voluntarily in a missionary opportunity. The ministry is to 16-18 year old cadets and senior personnel; also during area emergencies. Time element is two hours per week. There is no financial remuneration, yet an opportunity to reach many men beyond the circles of church activity.

year in the Sunday school we try to get an up-to-date list of the Sunday school superintendents. And that is no small matter.

Many have already written us of changes in this office, and we are so grateful for this help.

However, if your school has a new superintendent this year, and that change has not been reported to this office yet, please write us a card at once and give us the name and address of the new superintendent.

In doing this, be sure and give the name of your church and also the association.

This will be a most helpful service, and we shall be so thankful for help at this point.

Man Of Distinction

You will not find the account which follows in any of the liquor industry ads in which they set forth that "beer belongs" and that liquor goes along with "distinction." However, in an effort to be helpful, we give the facts below so that the people can be truly convinced that liquor makes "men of distinction."

A news report states that one man was shot in south Mississippi. He is now in a hospital. The man who shot him is in jail. Neither one is earning any salary at the present time. Of course, one is getting free board, but the other one is running up a big hospital bill. The sheriff of the county states that he does not know what led to the shooting, but that BOTH MEN WERE DRINKING.

Here we have two "men of distinction" — one having the distinction of having shot a man and put him in the hospital and being in jail.

The other has the distinction of having been shot in a drunken spree, being in the hospital and probably having a large hospital and doctor's bill.

We know of no one who covets such distinction, but liquor often leads to such a result.

Sunday School Lesson

By Dr. L. Bracey Campbell
For December 11.
Bible Text: Luke 10.

WHO IS MY NEIGHBOR

I. A LAWYER'S QUESTION

We have reached the period in our Lord's ministry when the opposition to him is hardening into a purpose to destroy Him.

This is the stage in that period when the opposition to Him is seeking to trap Him in his speech.

It was during this stage that certain of them came to Him requesting to know of Him whether it was lawful to pay tribute to Caesar, and during which the Sadducees came to Him with their disgusting and most unlikely story of the seven childless brothers, who had in succession the same wife.

For our lesson today we study the story of the lawyer who came to Him with this tremendous question, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" Now this is the most important question that any person in the world can ask, the most important question that ever demanded of the human heart an answer. Was this lawyer sincere in asking this question? Luke says that the lawyer stood up, "and made trial of him," by asking this question.

Now the word translated "made trial" is translated by the King James Version "tempted." It may have the meaning of a temptation in our sense of the word; it may have the meaning of tested, or tried, or proved. This lawyer may have meant simply to test or prove our Lord as to whether he could give answer to this question acceptable and good or he may have been utterly sincere in desiring to know what one act would guarantee him the possession of eternal life and secure him a title to mansions in the skies.

You may draw your own conclusions as to whether the lawyer meant this to be the first of a long series of questions intended to embarrass Jesus in the end. This lawyer knew the legal answer to that question, for being a lawyer, or scribe he had learned that command long ago.

II. THE ANSWER

"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself." Elsewhere our Lord has said, "Upon these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets." The important word for us just here is love. The tense of this verb is present. "Thou shalt continuously be loving." About all other objects which challenge the love of the human heart is God.

It will occur to you at once that, if this is the first and great commandment and that is none other so great, the greatest offense that man can commit against God is the disobedience of this commandment. You will hear someone make talk equivalent to this: "Oh, I'm not such a bad chap after all I pay my debts, I tell the truth, I don't backbite my neighbors, I am faithful to my wife (or husband), I try to do good to my neighbors."

"But, have you obeyed the first and greatest commandment, are you loving God supremely, does the love of God flow through you as a channel to all people in the world, is your very first love the love of God, and does that love arbitrate in your heart continually?"

And what did our Lord mean by love? I do not know all that he meant. The meaning of this verb in the mouth of our Lord is infinite as the limits of the heart of God. This one thing I know full well: the love with which God loves, in response to which He sent our Lord into the world to save us is no shallow sentiment which may be today and not be tomorrow, a sentiment elicited by the attractiveness of some outer object, but a principle of His very being, a principle which He implants in the heart of everyone who sincerely yields the whole of the life, body, heart, mind, soul, all of one's strength, to God.

This love is a restless ever-persistent, life-embracing desire to see the best that is possible come uppermost in the life of its object. Unto God the Lord, the best the life can yield in sincere and fervent love which bears its fruit in a loyal service to Him. This love will strive always to the end that one's neighbor and his neighbor's children shall all be partakers in the love and consequent blessings of the Lord. In the prayers of the simple country folk, I have over and again heard this petition, "Lord, bless us and our children, our neighbors, and our neighbors' children."

III. WHO IS MY NEIGHBOR?

The lawyer, desiring to set himself in a good life, responded to our Lord's words concerning love for one's neighbor by asking this question, "Who is my neighbor?"

Was the lawyer seeking to ask a question to which he hoped our Lord could frame no satisfactory answer, or was he desirous of knowing an answer that would be correct anyhow? Did he expect the Lord to say, "Why, to be sure, your neighbors are your friends, the other scribes. Your neighbors are the Pharisees and the other scribes. Your neighbors are your fellow-countrymen, the sons of Israel. Of course, you do not properly include the hated Samaritans, or any individual even of your own kindred who has proved himself unfriendly to you."

I mind a day long ago when, as teacher of a country school, my landlady got to talking to me about the people among whom she lived, and she said, "I have tried my best for years to get Johnny to move away from this place. I have no neighbors here. These old trashy people are not fit for me to raise my children among them." That dear sister had a conception of neighborhood which our Lord repudiated in one of his most famous parables. The story was among his most effective teaching devices.

Someone has quoted O. Henry as having said that the story of the Prodigal is the greatest short story in all the greatest short story in all the Shown above are Marvin Gordon, Donald McBride, Richard Gordon, and Jerry McMurray. All are students at Mississippi College, and were recently licensed to preach by the First Church, Poplarville. Rev. Clyde Gordon is pastor of the church and the father of Marvin and Richard Gordon.

The church recently doubled its Cooperative Program budget item for next year. The increase was from $1,500 to $3,000.

Parents of Baby Girl Shares Medical Care With Nigeria

Proud parents of a new baby girl in Winston-Salem, N. C., have sent the Foreign Mission Board a check for $50 to be used in the Ire Welfare Center in Nigeria.

The couple said, in a letter accompanying the check: "Our obstetrician, a member of First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, would not accept any remuneration. She visited the Nigeria mission fields last year, particularly this baby center at Ire; and she has spoken to many groups, showing pictures she made of that and other mission work."

"It is because of her love for missions, because of our appreciation for the care she gave us, and because we want to make possible added care and love for those Nigerian mothers and babies that we send this check, a portion of the sum we had saved for the doctor's bill."

"With this go our prayers and interest, not only for the Ire Welfare Center, but for the cause of missions throughout the world."

Well, now, if you want to indulge in that sort of thing and search with the most brazen dogmatism, in fact, be so dogmatic as really to be bull-dogmatic, you may go ahead and say as I heard a young preacher say that the priest in this case was the law which could not help the poor wounded traveler, and that the Levite symbolized the prophets and that they couldn't help the traveler either, my mind went woolgathering before he got down to the good Samaritan, whom his logic would have compelled him to say symbolized Christ. Only the young preacher himself could have told what or who was symbolized by the donkey that the Samaritan rode!

Away with this sort of trifling with the Word of God! The point in our Lord's story is that need makes neighborhood, that God makes you nigh to those who need you. That is exactly the meaning of the Lord's question of the lawyer, "Which of the three think you proved neighbor of the victim of the robbers?" And the lawyer answered, "He that showed mercy on him." To which the Lord made answer meet, "Go thou and do likewise."

GOING PLACES
By A. L. GOODRICH

As Usual

So far as we know, since our connection with the Baptist Record, wherever Rev. C. J. Olander has been pastor, the Baptist Record has been a part of the church program. Gooden Lake, where Mr. Olander is now pastor, is no exception to the rule.

Soon after going there as pastor Brother Joe asked that the Record be sent for a few weeks on trial, and the result was the same one. The church has made the Baptist Record a part of its program.

Record readers in Humphreys County are now listed as follows: BEULAH, 24; BELZONI, 126; ISOLA, 38; LOUISE, 52; SILVER CITY, 26; GOODEN LAKE, 41; CALVARY, 44.

Deerbrook
Changes Plan

Since its organization in 1945 the Deerbrook Church in Noxubee County has had the EVERY FAMILY Plan of the Baptist Record, but instead of paying by the month, which has many advantages, heretofore the church has paid yearly.

However, from now on, the church will pay by the month, and thus have the privilege of adding or removing names as the people come and go.

Rev. John W. Atchley is the pastor.

Record readers in Noxubee County are now listed as follows: BROOKSVILLE, 77; CONCORD, 33; Deerbrook, 17; ELON, 39; Gholson, 1; Macon, 144; MASHULAVILLE (Elim), 43; SHUQUALAK, 86.

Airport Is No. 1146

One of the latest additions to the growing list of churches that have adopted the popular and progressive EVERY FAMILY Plan of the Baptist Record is the Airport Church of Greenville. Rev. B. C. Sellers is the pastor.

Started as a mission in September, 1954, the church was formally organized last April 17. The church has 62 members, and has 75 enrolled in Sunday School. Very few churches have more people enrolled in the Sunday School than they have members of the church!

The list was sent by the clerk, Bernard M. Oglesby.

Record readers in Washington County are now listed as follows: AIRPORT, 27; ALEXANDER MEMORIAL, 33; ARCOLA, 58; DARLOVE, 30; GLEN ALLEN, 38; GREENVILLE, FIRST, 411; GREENVILLE, SECOND, 105; GREENVILLE, CALVARY, 155; GREENVILLE, PARKVIEW, 161; HOLLANDALE, 160; LEELAND, 240; SWIFTWATER, 16; LEELAND, SECOND, 48; FORKLAND, 26.

has set an example that could be followed by all.

They started with their weakest point, the habit of reading from the quarterly, and constantly stressed this point and all other points of the standard. The result was that they met the standard in every way and made the grade every month for the past year. The union represents those who are 60 years of age and above. They recently completed a study course and the entire membership completed the book.

Lucille Longest is the Director, Adult 3 Department of which this union is a part. J. R. Jones is Educational Director and Dr. Joe T. Odle is pastor.

LAUDERDALE ASSOCIATION

Conferences were arranged for all age groups. Conference leaders were as follows: Evelyn Crooke, Nursery, Beginner; Primary leaders; Juniors, Mrs. Betty Merrill and Dan Jones; Intermediates, Miss Rose Jackson; Young People, Mrs. David Cuttino; Adults, Mr. Jerry Amaker; General Officers, G. Approximately eleven churches were represented at this meeting which was held primarily to organize associational Training Union work. Complete plans for "M" Night were announced by the director and a calendar of activities for the association projected.

EMMANUEL CHURCH OF GRENADA ADVANCES

Mrs. Charles T. Smith writes that the Training Union of Emmanuel Baptist Church of Grenada is advancing in every way — attendance, efficiency and enrollment.

In October, the manuals were taught for the various age groups and an enlargement campaign was conducted with favorable results. The average attendance has increased from 99 to 133. H. L. Barns, Jr. is director and Rev. Harry Kellogg is pastor.

ADULTS SET EXAMPLE

The BUILDERS UNION of First Baptist Church, Gulfport,

Mrs. Harvey Cook and other members of Water Valley Church have assisted recently in organizing Training Union work at New Hope in Yalobusha Association. Mrs. Cook reports that plans were under way for a methods study course to be taught during the Thanksgiving holidays by the pastor.

THE BAPTIST RECORD

First, Louise, Breaks Ground

The First Church, Louise, recently held ground breaking services for an Educational Annex. The church was organized in 1950 by Rev. A. E. Lucas with 14 members. The present enrollment is 155.

The church building being debt free, a pastorum was built in 1953. Rev. Dale Holloway has been pastor since March.

The new building will include a beginner-primary assembly room and 8 class rooms.

Calvary, Walthall Dedicated Debt-Free

Calvary Church, Walthall County, was dedicated Sunday, December 4. The church was organized in April, 1955. The present auditorium with three Sunday School rooms in the back and place for a baptistry have been built since that time. Most of the labor was done by members of the church, and some of the material was donated. The present building is debt-free. Rev. Percy Magee is the pastor.

The land for the church plant was donated by Mrs. Sybil Fornea in memory of her mother, Mrs. Angie Soleumb Ard, who is deceased.

The church has plans for an educational building and a pastorum.

The church also, believing that a good start makes a good ending, in the very first business session adopted the EVERY FAMILY Plan of the Baptist Record.

The dedicatory sermon was preached by A. L. Goodrich, editor of the Baptist Record.

Revival services began on Monday night, December 5, with Rev. Earl George of Franklin, Louisiana as the evangelist.

50, 40 and 25 Years Ago

By Rev. J. L. BOYD Sr.

50 Years Ago

Mrs. J. L. Johnson Jr. makes a strong appeal to the women of the churches of the Central Baptist Association to unite and send Christmas Boxes to the Frontier Missionaries. And the women of the Hazlehurst Baptist Church sent a well packed box of clothing to the children of the Baptist Orphanage, consisting of "warm wraps and flannels, and wee baby garments" etc., writes Dora R. Greenlaw.

40 Years Ago

The superintendent of the Baptist Orphanage Farm, near Florence, entertained a group of interested Baptists of the state at Thanksgiving dinner who expressed praise for the "substantial delicacies (which) were first-class, nicely cooked and prepared to suit the most fastidious." Crops were very bountiful—"Seven hundred bushels of corn, 400 bushels of sweet potatoes, eighteen bushels of sweet peas, forty tons of hay, 300 bushels of oats, fifteen bushels of rice, seventy-five bushels of Irish potatoes, sixty two head of meat hogs, about a hundred head of chickens, etc." and 20,000 feet of lumber cut from the timber on the land by Superintendent Taylor Strong and the boys. R. A. Whitfield of Florence appears to have been the sponsor of this project to supply the inmates of Baptist Orphanage at Jackson.

Bryan Simmons makes some "Explanations" about the Baptist Hospital as to rates, namely, "In open wards, beds including board and general nursing, $2.00 per day; $12.00 per week. Private rooms, $21 to $25 per week. Use of operating room, from $2.50 to $7.50."

25 Years Ago

The Baptist Church at Pass Christian, under the leadership of Pastor W. S. Allen, celebrated their third anniversary on last Sunday in November, and all the 100 members are happy and enjoying a "perennial revival." And the outlook at Bay St. Louis "is better than ever before."

Evans Accepts Call To Oak Hill Church

Rev. D. T. Evans has accepted the call to become pastor of the Oak Hill Church, succeeding Rev. D. Wade Smith, who recently resigned due to his health.

Mr. Evans, formerly pastor of Bethel Church in Pearl River County, comes to Oak Hill from Gillsburg, where he has been serving as pastor.

With a gift from the Owen Coopers, of Yazoo City, the Student Summer Missions Fund for 1956 now stands at $633.81, leaving $2311.19 to go on the $3,000 goal to send out nine student missionaries next summer.

One was converted, three joined the Wesson Church from Co-Lin Jr. last month. Eleven unsaved, 100 enlisted are reported.

The Baptist Record is in receipt of a copy of resolutions recently adopted by the Bay Springs Baptist Church concerning the homegoing of their pastor, Dr. Cecil W. Jones. The resolutions called attention to Dr. Jones' sterling character and magnetic personality, and the fact that he was a tireless worker. It also noted that he was a man of God endowed by the Holy Spirit to lead others to Christ. The resolutions adopted by the church were prepared by H. V. Johnson, Joseph W. James, and Charles R. Mayfield.

They organized a Brotherhood, a Business Woman's Circle, a Young Woman's Auxiliary, a Boy Scout Troop, and a nursery for young children during the church services. The church membership was increased by 142 additions; 82 of which were by profession of faith. Sunday school attendance grew from an average of 97 to 142 and the Training Union was tripled during the five year period.

The Spring Street Mission was organized five years ago. Carpenter's Hall was used for a meeting place until the recent purchase of the property at 338 North Spring Street. That property was renovated and now provides space for worship and teaching services. The present Sunday school enrollment is 140. Mr. Edens is the fourth pastor.

OMAHA, Neb. (RNS)—Inclusion of white horse in a Nativity scene erected at a downtown square by a merchants' group has stirred a debate among Omaha citizens. The consensus seems to be that cattle, sheep or donkeys are appropriate in a manger but opinion is sharply divided on the presence of a horse. However, the Rev. Benjamin F. Schwartz, president of the Omaha Ministerial Union, said he found the horse "quite striking" and that, while it might be unusual, it was "perfectly orthodox." "Jesus was born in a stable," he said, "and you can put whatever animals you want in a stable. A donkey would, perhaps, be more in keeping with the humble scene but a horse is not incongruous." Maynard Buchanan, who built the display, said he had done a lot of research on the matter. He cited Nativity scenes painted by 13th and 14th century Italian artists which showed white horses.

Will Honor Word

Hon. R. H. Herrin

Hon. Ralph H. Herrin, Representative from Covington County, elected to serve in the Mississippi Legislature for the next four years, says he will honor his word to the voters of Covington County and to Mississippi Baptists. They will have no fear or worry about him voting wet.

Mr. Herrin is serving his sixth year as President of the Covington County Brotherhood. He is a member of the Salem Baptist Church and president of his church Brotherhood. He has been teacher of an adult Bible class for the past five years, and is Chairman of the Building Committee of his church.

In his campaign Mr. Herrin stated, "As a Christian, I will never vote to put a tax on whiskey and beer to raise tax money to educate our children. I had rather my boy to remain in ignorance than to be an educated man on liquor money. I will vote to keep our dry laws on the books, and use my influence to keep Mississippi and Covington County as dry as possible. Our youth must have access to the advancements we have made, but not with beer, wine and whiskey tax money. I will oppose and vote against any bill that comes up to legalize whiskey, or to keep the Black Market Tax on the books."
